17. "Why Don't We Have a Better Attendance at Drills?" Major Oscar Seebach, First Infantry; Captain William C. Montgomery, First Infantry; Captain William T. Mollison, Second Infantry; Captain Richard Little, Third Infantry; Captain Henry W. Yochem, Third Infantry.

General business.

Adjournment.

It is expected that in addition to the officers assigned to the above subjects, at least one officer from each regiment will participate in the discussion of each topic. Other topics may also be added and discussed at the pleasure of the members.

Officers of the regular army and visiting officers of the National Guard of other states are cordially invited to attend the convention and join in the discussion.

GEO. C. LAMBERT,
Major First Artillery, M. N. G.,
President.

GEORGE T. DALY,
First Lieutenant First Infantry, M. N. G.,
Secretary.

NOTE—In order that the necessary arrangements may be made in advance for the banquet dinner, smoked social and lunch, members who desire to participate therein are requested to forward immediately the sum of one dollar to Captain W. H. Hart, Globe building, St. Paul, Minn.

APPENDIX 7.

GENERAL ORDERS NO. 22.

December 17, 1906.

1. The annual report of the brigade inspector of small arms practice for the season of 1906 is published for the information of all concerned.

2. The state trophy, donated by the Adjutant General to become the property of the regiment whose team attains the highest score for three successive seasons, was awarded for the first time to the Third Infantry.

3. The following officers and men were selected as members of a rifle team to represent the state in the national trophy competition held at See Girt, N. Y., commencing September 3, 1906. In this competition 41 teams were entered. The competition resulted in the Minnesota team obtaining a tie for tenth place. Schedule "L" of this report shows the scores made by the Minnesota team.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S REPORT

GENERAL ORDERS NO. 22.

December 31, 1906.

The following changes have taken place in the military forces of the state since the publication of General Orders No. 21, A. G. O., dated November 30, 1906:

RESIGNED.

Third Infantry:

Naval Militia:

RETIRED.

First Infantry:

TRANSFERRED.

Third Infantry:

COMMISSIONED.

Third Infantry:

- Stephen H. Walsh, of Minneapolis, private Company "I," First Infantry, June 10, 1906.

The appointment of Dr. Frederick A. Swartwood, as examining surgeon, is hereby revoked.

By command of the Governor, FRED B. WOOD, Adjutant General.

CIRCULAR NO. 1.

June 5, 1906.

The following is published for the information of all concerned:

DIRECTIONS FOR SECURING HAVERSACK HOOKS, NEW MODEL, TO D-RINGS OF HAVERSACK, AND FOR ASSEMBLING CANTEEN AND HAVERSACK ON RIFLE CARTRIDGE BOLT MODEL (1906).

Place the smaller hooks through the D-ring of the haversack and close down by light blows of a hammer, or pressure with a pair of tweezers, until the D-ring cannot escape from the hook.

Engage the larger hook in the lower eyelets in the belt. Hook the canteen strap into the triangle on the canteen and the snap into an eye of the cartridge belt. Assemble suspenders and hook into upper eyelets of belt.

In adjusting suspenders and waist belt to the man, care should be taken to see that the waist belt is high enough. It is intended to rest over the pit of the stomach, and thus reduce as much as possible the pressure on the abdomen.

By command of the Governor, FRED B. WOOD, Adjutant General.
