MN NATIONAL GUARD EDUCATION BENEFITS 101

1. Federal Tuition Assistance: Federal Tuition Assistance (FTA) is a federally funded program paid directly to the school.

- (1) FUNDING LEVEL: FTA will fund up to 100% of tuition; up to $250.00 per semester credit or $167.00 per quarter credit, with a maximum of 16 credits per military fiscal year. Lifetime caps are 130 undergraduate credits and 39 graduate credits and 21 certificate credits. To apply for FTA go to www.GoArmyEd.com.
- (2) ELEGIBILITY:

Soldiers establish Tier 1 FTA eligibility as follows:

- Completed Advanced Individual Training, Warrant Officer Basic Course or Basic Officer Leaders Course.
- Have not attained a bachelor's degree and wish to pursue an undergraduate academic certificate, or associate's or bachelor's degree or
- Have attained a bachelor's degree without the use of FTA and wish to pursue an undergraduate or graduate academic certificate or master's degree.

Soldiers establish Tier 2 FTA eligibility as follows:

- Completed Advanced Leaders Course, Captain's Career Course, Warrant Officer Advanced Course or equivalent.
- Have attained a bachelor's degree and wish to pursue a graduate academic certificate, or a master's degree and
- Used FTA for any portion of their undergraduate degree.

- (3) GRADES: Required to be C or higher for Undergraduate courses and B or higher for Graduate courses, or recoupment will occur. Soldiers must maintain a 2.0 or 3.0 GPA.
- (4) Soldiers and Veterans should utilize the HEVP coordinator in their region. List is available at: http://www.mnveteranservice.org/documents/Veterans_Coordinators.html
- (5) Applications must be approved before the Start Date of each Course. FTA must be applied for and approved before the start date of each course in GoArmyEd.com
- (6) Chapter 1606/1607 GI Bill and FTA co-use prohibition: The DoD and VA have determined that Soldiers are no longer authorized to use FTA and Chapter 1606 or 1607 GI Bills at the same time. Soldiers must select one benefit to draw while attending school.
